

Our teaching professional JJ Vallely, a fully qualified PGA professional with 29 years of coaching experience at the highest level.

JJ works alongside the staff at George Washington in order to offer the best possible service to our members and visitors, having previously worked at Matfen Hall Golf Club for 28 years and also working at the Northumberland Golf Club, during this time he competed for many years which included 2 seasons on the PGA Europro Tour.

Over the last 18 years he has focused on his passion for teaching having developed his coaching reputation through working with players of all abilities from beginners through to tour pros and England internationals. He has been an England Golf coach for the past 16 years and is the lead coach for the England U18 Girls North Region.

JJ has had huge success helping players develop through his various squads which have culminated in 10 girls being capped for England with many of his students winning national & international titles.

In 2018, he was awarded England Golf 'Squad Coach of the Year' in recognition of his impact in player development. JJ is very proud to have supported 14 girls from his squads going to College in the US on full scholarships.

JJ has completed various qualifications travelling extensively across Europe and America to learn from the best coaches in the world, his biggest influence has been from legendary American Hall of fame coach Jim Hardy & PGA tour coaches Chris O'Connell and Andy Traynor of Plane Truth Golf. he was honoured to be awarded Plane Truth Level 3 status in 2019 as a leader in the field of golf instruction (Level 3 Inner Circle | Instruction Certification - Plane Truth Golf).

Having played an integral part in the development of hundreds of junior golfers over the years through individual lessons and the development of his junior academy. This is something he is hoping to continue at George Washington Golf Club, He has also helped numerous adult beginners start their golfing journey and get "hooked on the game"

JJ will be conducting individual & group lessons to members and visitors as well as building up the junior academy. 1:1 lessons can be tailored to specific needs and goals. He will also be offering various clinics to members focusing upon different aspects of the game over the summer.

JJ brings a wealth of knowledge, as a lifelong student of the game he strives to help every golfer, of all ages and abilities to reach their maximum golfing potential and enjoy their game more. He leaves no stone unturned in his quest to give his students the best information and experience, along with excellent communication skills, patience and his natural enthusiasm for the game makes learning golf a lot of fun for players of all levels.
